

5 December 2022

NOTICE OF REPEAL OF EXISTING LOCAL RULE 11-501 FEES

AND ADOPTION OF

LOCAL RULE 11-501 FEES

Introduction

On 24 November 2022, the Financial and Consumer Services Commission (“Commission”) approved the repeal of existing Local Rule 11-501 Fees and replacement with new Local Rule 11-501 Fees (the “Fee Rule”) as set out in Appendix “A”.

Background

On 27 January 2022, the Commission published notice of proposed amendments to the Fee Rule for a 60-day comment period as part of the move to a biennial prospectus filing model for investment funds in continuous distribution (“lapse date project”). On 7 July 2022, the Commission further published notice of the proposed repeal of existing Local Rule 11-501 Fees and replacement with a proposed new Fee Rule for a 60-day comment period. The Commission did not receive any comment letters in response to both publications. The Commission has made some minor changes to the proposed rule published on 7 July 2022 and determined that there were no material changes, and a further comment period was not necessary.

Substance and Purpose

The purpose of the Fee Rule is to set out the fees payable by market participants, including companies that issue securities, registered investment firms and registered investment advisors. The Fee Rule aims to simplify and streamline the fee structure and bring it up to date with changes to securities legislation.

We anticipate there will be further changes to the Fee Rule if we, along with other Canadian Securities Administrators jurisdictions, make amendments related to the lapse date project, as set out in the 27 January 2022 publication. Details of any amendments to the Fee Rule will be published in coordination with details regarding the lapse date project.

The effective date of the Fee Rule is 6 February 2023, subject to Ministerial approval.

Summary of Changes:

- New fee table format: The Fee Rule presents the fees in a table format that is easier to navigate.
- Registration fees: The Fee Rule raises the fee for registered firms and introduces a new fee for international dealers and advisors, consistent with a similar fee charged in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario.

- New fees for applications: The fees for various applications have been standardized. A new fee has been added for the recognition of certain entities like an exchange, clearing agency, trade repository or derivatives trading facility where FCNB is the principal regulator.
- Other changes: Upon adoption of the Fee Rule, Blanket Order 11-507 Exemption from Certain Investment Fund Fee Requirements in Local Rule 11-501 Fees will be repealed.
