

Consent Form – Collection and Use of Information

Persons proposing to participate in the Community Economic Development Corporations and Cooperatives (CEDC) program offered co-operatively by the Financial and Consumer Services Commission of New Brunswick (Commission) and the Department of Finance and Treasury Board have various disclosure and filing requirements under both Local Rule 45-509 Community Economic Development Corporations and Cooperatives made under the Securities Act and the Small Business Investor Tax Credit Act (SBITC Act) and General Regulation under the SBITC Act.

By submitting documents required under the Securities Act to participate in the CEDC program, you consent to the direct and indirect collection and use of the information contained in the documents by the Commission. The Commission has the authority to collect and use the information for the purpose of the administration and enforcement of securities legislation.

You acknowledge that the Commission may share the information with the Department of Finance and Treasury Board and with other regulating authorities and law enforcement agencies in New Brunswick and other jurisdictions to verify the information and for other purposes related to the administration and enforcement of securities legislation.

Any personal and confidential information contained in the documents will be securely maintained by the Commission and will not be disseminated to third parties or the public, without your consent, other than as may be required by the Securities Act, the Right to Information and Protection of Privacy Act or as otherwise permitted by applicable law.

If you have any questions about the collection and use of the information, contact the Commission by email at EMF-MD@fcnb.ca or by telephone at 1-866-933-2222.
