

CAPITAL MARKETS NOTICE

New Brunswick Capital Market Activity 2023-2024

November 12, 2025

CONTENTS

|                                                                                   |    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Executive summary                                                                 | 1  |
| Prospectus distributions (excluding investment funds)                             | 3  |
| Prospectus distributions (investment funds and ETFs)                              | 5  |
| Capital raises by Community Economic Development Corporations and Cooperatives    | 7  |
| Market analysis                                                                   | 7  |
| New Brunswick's exempt market – regional breakdown                                | 7  |
| Regulatory changes                                                                | 11 |
| Review of disclosure regarding women on boards and in executive officer positions | 11 |
| Listed issuer financing exemption                                                 | 12 |
| Registration                                                                      | 12 |
| Summary                                                                           | 14 |

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This notice provides an overview of New Brunswick's capital markets, as well as insights into certain activities, from January 1, 2023 to December 31, 2024.

The continued growth in New Brunswick's exempt market aligns with the findings reported in the Capital Markets Report published in November 2023. Key trends identified in this notice include:

- The accredited investor exemption (see Note 1) continues to be the most used prospectus exemption<sup>1</sup>:
  - Approximately 99 per cent of capital raised in New Brunswick's exempt market relied on the accredited investor exemption.
  - New Brunswick's universities invested approximately $45 million, relying on the accredited investor exemption.
  - The combined investment made by New Brunswick's top 10 accredited investors exceeded $1 billion in 2024.
- Five New Brunswick-based issuers collectively raised approximately $242 million in 2024, while issuer capital raises ranged from $4,700 to more than $44 million. The majority of those purchases were under the accredited investor exemption.

1. A prospectus exemption allows companies to raise capital without preparing and filing a formal prospectus—a detailed legal document that outlines the business, financials, risks and terms of a securities offering.

Note 1: The accredited investor exemption allows the distribution of securities to an accredited investor in any amount without providing any required disclosure documents about the issuer. No limit exists on the number of purchasers or the amount that can be raised using the accredited investor exemption. See section 1.1 and subsection 2.3(1) of National Instrument 45-106 Prospectus Exemptions for the list of requirements to be an accredited investor.

The following charts and graphs illustrate the prospectus exemptions commonly relied upon by New Brunswick issuers in 2023 and 2024.

When interpreting this data, it is important to note that companies are not required to disclose the amounts they raise when they rely on the private issuer exemption. Accordingly, we cannot report on activity in that area of New Brunswick's capital markets.

Figure 1a: Exemption relied on by New Brunswick issuers
(excluding accredited investor)

| Exemption                                                                  | Year | Amount      |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-------------|
| 45-106 2.10 – Minimum Amount Investment                                    | 2023 | $0         |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $2,000,000 |
| 45-106 2.13 – Petroleum, Natural Gas and Mining Properties                 | 2023 | $25,000    |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $15,000    |
| 45-106 2.24 – Employee, Executive Officer, Director and Consultant         | 2023 | $0         |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $0         |
| 45-106 2.5 – Family, Friends and Business Associates                       | 2023 | $654,200   |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $887,058   |
| 45-110 5(1) – Start-up Crowdfunding Registration and Prospectus Exemptions | 2023 | $13,200    |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $2,350     |
| Other (US accredited investor)                                             | 2023 | $224,700   |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $50,000    |

Figure 1b: Exemption highlight (accredited investor)

| Exemption                        | Year | Amount        |
|----------------------------------|------|---------------|
| 45-106 2.3 – Accredited Investor | 2023 | $239,899,844 |
|                                  | 2024 | $244,480,453 |

Figure 1c: Totals of all exemptions relied on by New Brunswick issuers

| Year       | Amount        |
|------------|---------------|
| 2023 Total | $240,816,944 |
| 2024 Total | $247,434,861 |

Throughout 2023 and into 2024, geopolitical conflicts and concerns about a global recession created a cautious environment. In addition, the Bank of Canada and many of the world's central banks increased interest rates to combat the threat of rising inflation. This made borrowing more expensive, increasing financing costs for dealmaking and investor return requirements, and making it harder for issuers and buyers to agree on valuations for securities. As such, general financing activity was lower over the period as many companies abstained from the capital markets until interest rates decreased.<sup>[2]</sup>

Prospectus distributions (excluding investment funds)

The number of prospectuses filed in 2024 increased slightly to 273 from 265 in the previous year, however, this figure remains below the levels recorded by the 2020-2022 Capital Markets Notice.

This trend is consistent with other jurisdictions, as companies are increasingly relying on the exempt market and other non-prospectus financing methods.

Prospectus filings in New Brunswick have spanned a wide range of industries including, but not limited to, agriculture, mining, real estate, transportation, oil and gas and financial services.

2. Federal Reserve Board, Monetary Policy and Exchange Rates during the Global Tightening (Washington, DC: Federal Reserve Board, 2024).

Figure 2a: Industry break down (excluding investment funds)

| Industry                                        | Year | Amount          |
|-------------------------------------------------|------|-----------------|
| Accommodation and food services                 | 2023 | $33,598        |
|                                                 | 2024 | $20,000,000    |
| Arts, entertainment and recreation              | 2023 | $0             |
|                                                 | 2024 | $200,000       |
| Construction                                    | 2023 | $320,000       |
|                                                 | 2024 | $206,000       |
| Finance and insurance                           | 2023 | $643,716,252   |
|                                                 | 2024 | $1,025,271,148 |
| Health care and social assistance               | 2023 | $3,497,340     |
|                                                 | 2024 | $26,974,205    |
| Industrial products                             | 2023 | $8,132,998     |
|                                                 | 2024 | $50,000        |
| Information and cultural industries             | 2023 | $52,277,161    |
|                                                 | 2024 | $20,065,000    |
| Junior natural resource – mining                | 2023 | $614,018       |
|                                                 | 2024 | $0             |
| Management of companies and enterprises         | 2023 | $9,109,230     |
|                                                 | 2024 | $38,753,805    |
| Manufacturing                                   | 2023 | $7,593,697     |
|                                                 | 2024 | $45,873,152    |
| Mining, quarrying, and oil and gas              | 2023 | $44,517,735    |
|                                                 | 2024 | $158,255,490   |
| Professional, scientific and technical services | 2023 | $26,500,659    |
|                                                 | 2024 | $58,916,802    |
| Real estate and rental and leasing              | 2023 | $154,099,871   |
|                                                 | 2024 | $199,116,870   |
| Retail trade                                    | 2023 | $59,281,621    |
|                                                 | 2024 | $40,800,000    |
| Transportation and warehousing                  | 2023 | $27,000,000    |
|                                                 | 2024 | $302,050       |
| Utilities                                       | 2023 | $35,589,338    |
|                                                 | 2024 | $80,261,927    |
| Wholesale trade                                 | 2023 | $20,000,801    |
|                                                 | 2024 | $30,500,250    |
| Other                                           | 2023 | $17,884,752    |
|                                                 | 2024 | $251,000       |

Prospectus distributions (investment funds and ETFs)

In 2023, 3,958 investment funds prospectuses were filed in New Brunswick. The number of filings increased to 4,289 in 2024. Owing to the convenience and increasing innovation in products, over the long term, the number of fund products available to Canadians has seen consistent growth.

Figure 3: Type of offerings

| Trends                               | Year | Amount          |
|--------------------------------------|------|-----------------|
| Investment funds                     | 2023 | $593,158,914   |
|                                      | 2024 | $1,326,816,780 |
| Issuer (other than investment funds) | 2023 | $1,110,169,865 |
|                                      | 2024 | $1,730,786,755 |
| 2023 Total                           |      | $1,703,328,779 |
| 2024 Total                           |      | $3,057,603,534 |

Figures 4 a-c highlight the exemptions New Brunswick companies relied on to raise capital in 2023 and 2024. This data highlights the importance of the accredited investor exemption to New Brunswick’s capital markets. To provide some additional context, most accredited investors in New Brunswick are investment funds.

Figure 4a: Exemptions relied on by all issuers with distribution in New Brunswick (excluding accredited investor)

| Exemption                                                                  | Year | Amount       |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|--------------|
| 45-106 2.1 – Rights offering                                               | 2023 | $4,500      |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $0          |
| 45-106 2.10 – Minimum amount investment                                    | 2023 | $64,560,188 |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $26,723,500 |
| 45-106 2.12 – Asset acquisition                                            | 2023 | $9,499,998  |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $0          |
| 45-106 2.13 – Petroleum, natural gas and mining properties                 | 2023 | $707,978    |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $130,293    |
| 45-106 2.14 – Securities for debt                                          | 2023 | $0          |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $128,074    |
| 45-106 2.19 – Additional investment in investment funds                    | 2023 | $100,000    |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $322,000    |
| 45-106 2.5 – Family, friends and business associates                       | 2023 | $586,500    |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $1,112,734  |
| 45-106 2.9(2.1) – Offering memorandum                                      | 2023 | $5,092,044  |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $8,273,172  |
| 45-106 5A.2 – Listed issuer financing exemption                            | 2023 | $3,306,262  |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $2,799,998  |
| 45-110 5(1) – Start-up crowdfunding registration and prospectus exemptions | 2023 | $26,687     |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $38,080     |
| 45-505 – Distribution to existing security holders                         | 2023 | $9,198      |
|                                                                            | 2024 | $0          |

Figure 4b: Exemption highlight (accredited investor)

| Exemption                        | Year | Amount          |
|----------------------------------|------|-----------------|
| 45-106 2.3 – Accredited investor | 2023 | $1,619,435,325 |
|                                  | 2024 | $3,018,075,695 |

Figure 4c: Totals of all exemptions relied on by all issuers with distribution in New Brunswick

| Year       | Amount          |
|------------|-----------------|
| 2023 Total | $1,703,328,779 |
| 2024 Total | $3,057,603,534 |

CAPITAL RAISES BY COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATIONS AND COOPERATIVES

A community economic development corporation or cooperative (CEDC) is a local business that raises funds for a defined community-economic purpose by selling shares (or other eligible securities) to investors in New Brunswick. A local group of officers and directors controls the funds and directs them toward development within their communities.

For New Brunswickers, CEDCs represent an opportunity to channel their investment dollars into their local economy and obtain a tax credit from the Government of New Brunswick for their investment.<sup>[3]</sup>

Since the inception of the CEDC program, four CEDCs have received non-objection letters from the Commission. While the Commission did not issue any non-objection letters during the 2023-2024 reporting period, we continue to support existing and prospective CEDC issuers.

MARKET ANALYSIS

New Brunswick's exempt market – regional breakdown

Investment activity in New Brunswick remains predominantly concentrated in the southern region of the province, a pattern that has shown little variation in recent years. However, in 2024, Fredericton and Saint John experienced a notable increase in investment flows, coinciding with the Bank of Canada's decision to begin cutting interest rates in June. Over the remainder of the year, the policy rate was reduced five times, reaching 3.25 per cent by year-end, as inflation cooled and economic slack emerged. This shift in monetary policy made traditional fixed-income investments less attractive, prompting investors to seek alternative opportunities.<sup>[4]</sup>

3. See CEDC Program | New Brunswick Financial and Consumer Services Commission.

4. Pinnacle Wealth, Why Canadians Are Investing in the Exempt Market in 2024: Key Trends and Insights.

Figure 5: New Brunswick purchaser amount by region

Issuer location

Provincial and national boundaries are less of a barrier to capital formation. Many companies outside of New Brunswick are raising capital in the province. As this chart and the following tables illustrates, New Brunswick purchasers have accessed opportunities in New Brunswick companies, and purchased securities issued by companies in other Canadian provinces and internationally.

Figure 6a: Issuer head office – within Canada

| Location                  | Year | Amount          |
|---------------------------|------|-----------------|
| Alberta                   | 2023 | $94,728,121    |
|                           | 2024 | $201,378,785   |
| British Columbia          | 2023 | $76,187,423    |
|                           | 2024 | $103,925,955   |
| Manitoba                  | 2023 | $2,000,000     |
|                           | 2024 | $0             |
| New Brunswick             | 2023 | $195,520,431   |
|                           | 2024 | $202,546,819   |
| Newfoundland and Labrador | 2023 | $8,000,000     |
|                           | 2024 | $8,000,000     |
| Nova Scotia               | 2023 | $34,097,256    |
|                           | 2024 | $41,218,584    |
| Ontario                   | 2023 | $622,388,770   |
|                           | 2024 | $1,117,687,755 |
| Québec                    | 2023 | $241,725,518   |
|                           | 2024 | $236,320,705   |
| Saskatchewan              | 2023 | $22,355,680    |
|                           | 2024 | $6,028,929     |

Figure 6b: Issuer head office – Outside Canada (foreign issuers)

| Location             | Year | Amount          |
|----------------------|------|-----------------|
| Foreign (Non-Canada) | 2023 | $406,325,580   |
|                      | 2024 | $1,140,496,001 |

Figure 6c: Issuer head office – Canada & Foreign

| Year       | Amount          |
|------------|-----------------|
| 2023 Total | $1,703,328,779 |
| 2024 Total | $3,057,603,534 |

Where New Brunswick issuers are finding investment capital

New Brunswick companies are raising capital by selling their securities to purchasers not only in New Brunswick, but also by accessing other markets across Canada and internationally.

Figure 7: Purchaser locations

| Country                     | Location                  | 2023                 | 2024                 |
|-----------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------|----------------------|
| Canada                      | All                       | $239,820,612        | $246,592,614        |
|                             | Alberta                   | $1,594,100          | $245,000            |
|                             | British Columbia          | $14,388,817         | $25,500,000         |
|                             | New Brunswick             | $193,649,249        | $204,462,001        |
|                             | Newfoundland and Labrador | $15,000             | $0                  |
|                             | Nova Scotia               | $20,293,588         | $13,444,113         |
|                             | Ontario                   | $2,226,108          | $175,500            |
|                             | Québec                    | $7,653,750          | $2,766,000          |
| United States               | All                       | $915,133            | $0                  |
|                             | Maine                     | $130,000            | $0                  |
|                             | Maryland                  | $263,968            | $0                  |
|                             | New York                  | $100,000            | $0                  |
|                             | Texas                     | $11,700             | $0                  |
|                             | Virginia                  | $13,500             | $0                  |
|                             | Washington                | $395,964            | $0                  |
| Asia Pacific                |                           | $31,200             | $0                  |
| Europe                      |                           | $0                  | $150,000            |
| South America and Caribbean |                           | $50,000             | $692,247            |
| Total                |                           | $240,816,944 | $247,434,861 |

REGULATORY CHANGES

Review of disclosure regarding women on boards and in executive officer positions

Over the past decade, the Canadian Securities Administrators (CSA) have conducted annual reviews of diversity among directors and executive officers of certain Canadian publicly traded companies. In Fall 2024, the CSA published its Year 10 report, based on disclosures required under Form 58-101F1 of National Instrument 58-101 Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices. The report highlighted key trends in the representation of women on boards and in executive roles. Notably, the CSA announced that they expected that this would be the final year of the annual review under the current framework.

Figure 8: Highlights of year 10 findings

Board seats

Executive officer positions

Policies and targets

Term limits

Looking ahead, the CSA is exploring potential changes to diversity-related disclosure requirements, as outlined in its April 2023 notice and request for comment on proposed amendments to NI 58-101 and National Policy 58-201.<sup>[5]</sup>

Listed issuer financing exemption

The listed issuer financing exemption (LIFE) came into effect on November 21, 2022. It provides a more efficient method of capital raising for reporting issuers that have securities listed on a Canadian stock exchange and have satisfied their continuous disclosure obligations. Twenty-three issuers relied on the exemption during this reporting period, raising more than $6 million.

This exemption aims to reduce costs for issuers raising smaller amounts of capital through the public markets by simplifying the disclosure requirements for issuers. LIFE allows issuers to raise the greater of $5 million, or 10 per cent of the issuer's market capitalization, to a maximum of $10 million annually.<sup>[6]</sup> LIFE also allows retail investors to access a wider variety of investment options.

Registration

Registration is a key aspect of capital market regulation. The registration data provides us with the number of individuals and firms registered in the business of advising or trading in securities in New Brunswick. The data below illustrates the different categories of registrants and how they are participating in New Brunswick's capital markets.

5. In April 2025, the CSA announced it was pausing its work on changes to diversity-related disclosure requirements. See CSA updates market on approach to climate-related and diversity-related disclosure projects.
6. Per Coordinated Blanket Order 45-935 Exemptions from Certain Conditions of the Listed Issuer Financing Exemption, effective May 15, 2025, issuers can raise the greater of $25 million or 20 per cent of their aggregate market value, up to a maximum of $50 million in a 12-month period.

Figure 9: Number of firms by category<sup>[7]</sup>

We have seen an increase in the categories of Exempt Market Dealer, Mutual Fund Dealer and Portfolio Manager since the last notice.

| Category                     | 2023       | 2024       |
|------------------------------|------------|------------|
| Exempt Market Dealer         | 247        | 257        |
| Investment Dealer            | 114        | 114        |
| Investment Fund Manager      | 31         | 32         |
| Mutual Fund Dealer           | 50         | 52         |
| Portfolio Manager            | 223        | 232        |
| Restricted Dealer            | 11         | 9          |
| Restricted Portfolio Manager | 4          | 5          |
| Scholarship Plan Dealer      | 6          | 6          |
| Grand Total           | 508 | 517 |

Figure 10: Number of firms and branches

| Year | Branches |
|------|----------|
| 2023 | 488      |
| 2024 | 489      |

7. A firm may be registered in more than one category.

Figure 11: Registration category<sup>[8]</sup>

| Firm Category                | Individual Category               | 2023          | 2024          |
|------------------------------|-----------------------------------|---------------|---------------|
| Exempt Market Dealer         | Chief Compliance Officer          | 232           | 245           |
|                              | Dealing Representative            | 1,268         | 1,348         |
| Investment Dealer            | Chief Compliance Officer          | 118           | 117           |
|                              | Dealing Representative            | 7,573         | 7,887         |
| Investment Fund Manager      | Chief Compliance Officer          | 28            | 30            |
| Mutual Fund Dealer           | Chief Compliance Officer          | 46            | 47            |
|                              | Dealing Representative            | 3,679         | 3,706         |
| Portfolio Manager            | Chief Compliance Officer          | 212           | 219           |
|                              | Advising Representative           | 1,896         | 1,988         |
|                              | Associate Advising Representative | 341           | 361           |
| Restricted Dealer            | Chief Compliance Officer          | 9             | 5             |
|                              | Dealing Representative            | 4             | 0             |
| Restricted Portfolio Manager | Chief Compliance Officer          | 3             | 4             |
|                              | Advising Representative           | 12            | 14            |
|                              | Associate Advising Representative | 2             | 0             |
| Scholarship Plan Dealer      | Chief Compliance Officer          | 4             | 4             |
|                              | Dealing Representative            | 79            | 56            |
| Ultimate Designated Person   | Ultimate Designated Person        | 480           | 496           |
| Grand Total           |                                   | 14,735 | 15,212 |

SUMMARY

Based on the statistics in this notice, it may be safely stated that the exempt market still accounts for a significant portion of the activity in New Brunswick's capital markets. Although activity has decreased in many areas, it appears as though activity levels are returning to more normal pre-2020 levels.

8. A person may be registered in more than one category. See Understanding Registration (CSA) for more information about individual categories of registration.